

A colorful, stylized illustration of Paris. The Eiffel Tower is the central focus, rendered in a brown and orange lattice pattern. At its top, a French flag (blue, white, and red) flies. The tower is surrounded by a dense cityscape of buildings with blue roofs and green trees. In the background, the Arc de Triomphe is visible. The foreground shows a park area with green grass, trees, and a blue path. A large, colorful bird is in the bottom left, and several smaller birds are flying in the sky. The overall style is whimsical and artistic.
